2) The preliminary transaction and negotiation about the purchase seem to have taken place at some where in the S.W.D. This is the first official communication on the subject read here.

The matter is urgent as the amount has to be paid before the close of the 4th year. ~~30th June 09~~

The sale has therefore to be completed soon. The draft deed requires very early approval. It may this be sent to Mr. III. for examination & return.

(6) The mere attestation of a document will not indicate the consent of the attestor to the terms of the deed. He simply attests the execution of the deed by the vendor.

(7) To avoid this and other difficulties the vendor may be asked to execute the deed not only on his own account but also ~~as manager~~ on behalf of his family as its manager. I have indicated the necessary alteration in pencil on the draft deed. I have also added a clause as to the guarantee of title.

The body of the document provides for the payment of Rs 1000 direct to Mr Abhyuttha on account of the settlement of his claim. The concluding portion shows that the deed of mortgage to Mr Abhyuttha is delivered up to the Depy C with the document executed in the Dy C's favor — This is somewhat inconsistent apparently. Sir,

In continuation of my letter of yesterday's date, submitting for the approval of Government, the draft deed of conveyance proposed to be executed by Mr. M. Venkata-Krishnaiah in connection with the sale of his house at Mysore to Government, I have the honour to state as follows:-

The Chief Engineer having urged the payment of the purchase money before the close of the official year and the party also having pressed for payment of the mortgage money due to Mr. P. S. Achyuta Row in respect of the house in question for fear of interest, I have this day drawn the whole amount of Rs 10,000/- and arranged the payment of Rs 8000/- to Mr. Acyuta Row by means of a P.S.T. Receipt drawn upon the Bangalore District Treasury in favour of the Deputy Commissioner Bangalore in view to obtain a complete discharge of the existing encumbrances on the property and procure documents duly endorsed in favour of Government from the Doctor. The balance of Rs 2000/- will be kept under Revenue Deposits for payment to the Vendor after the execution of the document.
